

UPSTREAM FOR GRADES 9TH – 12TH

Living for God in an ungodly world - GO AGAINST THE FLOW!

UPCOMING ACTIVITIES – WINTER/SPRING 2019

JANUARY

- Friday, January 4 (7:00 - 10:00 P.M.)

F.R.O.G.S./UPSTREAM EXTRAVAGANZA — The more the merrier as we start the second semester with a super-sized F.R.O.G.S./UPstream combo event featuring Bunco, Bukkit Ball, and more.

- Friday, January 11 (8:00 - 10:00 P.M.)

QUELF — There is one simple rule in Quelf: Obey the cards. But in the land of Quelf, absurdity is king and random his queen. You're the jester! So the cards could have you uttering strange phrases, moving in slow motion, or writing an impromptu limerick about asparagus. Mrs. Pickle Feather, Biscuit Farmer, The Dude, and the rest of the Quelf crazies await you.

- Friday, January 25 (8:00 - 10:15 P.M.)

KINGDOMINO — A landscape of forests, prairies, deserts and more lay before you, ready to rule. Search for crowns and choose your tiles wisely as you build your kingdom. The winner of our Kingdomino tournament will get their very own crown and a Burger King gift card.

FEBRUARY

- Friday, February 15 (8:00 - 10:00 P.M.)

LOVE LETTERS — How well do you woo? In this card game, you are a wooer who wooingly works to win the warmth of woeful, heartbroken Princess Annette of the kingdom of Tempest. One wouldn't want her to wait unwooed. Why? The winningest wooer walks away with this windfall: a box of Valentine's chocolates...which may or may not be bought on clearance the day after Valentine's Day. (Suggestion: Don't try that in any of your real life wooing efforts.)

MARCH

- Friday, March 1 (8:00 - 10:00 P.M.)

ESCAPE ROOM (IN A BOX): VIRUS — What a time for your lab partner to faint! The test tube he held in his hands now lays shattered on the floor...and a deadly contagion is spreading out at your feet! Use the chrono-decoder to find the cure within an hour, or else...! (Every sentence in this description ends with an exclamation point! Even this sentence fragment! Everything this evening will be spoken dramatically with exclamation points until the cure is found!)

- Friday, March 15 (TIME: TBD)

UHPP (SOME OR ALL OF THE NIGHT) — You wanted a lock-in? With ten or more people, you got it! Less than ten and we'll settle for an 'up till midnight' evening. Whichever way it goes, we'll order wings, debut "The Mind" game, and play a round or two of Telestrations on our way to filling the night with fun.

- Friday, March 29 (8:00 - 10:15 P.M.)

THE FIRST 2ND BIENNIAL BIG BLIND (NOT BLAND) TASTE TEST TRIAL (OF DOOM) — How well do you know your candy bars? Or potato chip flavors? ~~Or hamster feed?~~ You'll taste an assortment of foods blindfolded (you're blindfolded, not the food) and try to correctly identify them to win the grand prize: your very own blindfold! (And maybe a gift card...)

APRIL

- Friday, April 12 (7:00 - 9:00 P.M.)

4TNITE — The word on the street is that kids love 'The Fortnite.' But for copyright reasons we can't call it 'Fortnite,' so pretend you didn't read what you've already read. We'll combine F.R.O.G.S. & UPstream for a live-action nerfy-ish version which we'll call "4TNITE." The winner of the battle royale gets, I don't know, maybe a nice pair of socks. You're welcome.

MAY

- Friday, May 3 (8:00 - 10:15 P.M.)

DOMINOS FOR DOMINOS — Dominos are also called bones, tiles, or stones. For our porpoises we'll call them your ticket to a Dominos pizza if you are crowned the champion. Fun fact: There is a professional domino organization called FIDO - the Fédération Internationale de Domino. (Woof-woof!) Less fun fact: The 2008 and 2009 Double FIDO domino world champion from the United Kingdom is Darren Elhindi. Congratulations Darren. But did you get any Domino's Pizza out of it? Didn't think so. Sorry Darren.

- Friday, May 17 (7:00 - 10:15 P.M.)

NERF-AGEDDON (...AND THE SPLURGE) — We end the school year with the 1st Fifth annual showdown against F.R.O.G.S. Can the UPstreamers extend their perfect record to 5-0? Afterwards...The Splurge!

I look forward to another semester of fun and fellowship with you!

Let me know if ever you have any questions or ideas or feedback, or if ever you need a friend or encouragement.
